Create your very own unique Illustrations easily.

We use visuals such as illustrations as key elements in visual communication for e-learning and infographics. They help attract the viewer's attention and reinforce key messages. A picture speaks a thousand words. There are many apps in the market that help to produce illustrations and they are usually expensive. Did you know Microsoft PowerPoint can create unique and impactful illustrations (Your alternative to Adobe Illustrator) such as human characters and objects/shapes (all drawn in PowerPoint) and more as seen below at no extra cost if you already have PowerPoint in your Microsoft Office?

MS PowerPoint offers incredibly useful drawing tools that comes with fully customizable options to let you create your own illustrations even if you have zero artistic ability. This 1-day course will help you to explore many unrealised features that will enable you to create your own unique and impactful illustrations, and there are many ready premade customizable objects in PowerPoint that you can leverage and start on. Have your audience wonder where did you get those illustrations from? Sign up for this course today and we will show you how.
